

Is there anything I can do to stop solicitors from sending faxes to my fax machine. I am self-employed and have an office in my residence. I don't use my fax machine very often, but it has a dedicated line that is only used for faxing. I sometimes go for weeks without using it, but almost daily I receive unsolicited advertising. IF the ad has a number to call to be removed from their list, I call it. It cost me money every time I receive one of these ads. Granted it's not that much per fax, but when I get more faxes from business that are not my clients and I have no desire to have any business with than what I receive for own business, it costs me more to keep my fax full of paper and toner for junk advertising than I spend for my own business. I don't want unsolicited ads sent to me, and I sure don't want to be out any money to receive them. I feel helpless to stop it. I'm not a lawyer, but it seems to me that they are stealing from me. They are taking money out of my pocket every time they send me an ad and I want it stopped.

I would appreciate any advice or guidance you can give me.
